

2012 Program Results

Community Dialogues & Education Courses Pre/Post Survey Analysis

YES Institute is committed to evaluating our work to ensure high quality results for the communities we reach. This executive summary contains key findings from all 2012 Community Dialogues and education course pre/post participant surveys.

44% Increase in the number of yearly participants reached by YES Institute since 2009.

New Conversations

46% report never participating in an educational talk on gender and orientation before YES Institute. 29% reported only one prior presentation on these topics.

Increasing Knowledge & Tools

76% report increased knowledge of the challenges faced by youth and families on gender and orientation, and 72% feel more equipped to handle a situation on these topics. Prior to the dialogue, these participants reported no or limited knowledge and tools.

Overall Ratings

of participants rate their Community Dialogue or education course as "worthwhile" or "extremely worthwhile".

of participants rate YES Institute's Gender & Orientation Series™ as "worthwhile" or "extremely worthwhile".