Dialogue for Purposeful Action

YES Institute works in dynamic partnerships with individuals and organizations committed to creating a safer world for all youth. Our trained course leaders and speakers facilitate open, inclusive discussions on gender and orientation that honor all points of view. Initiating dialogue is the first step we take in creating environments that are safe and supportive for all youth and families.

Powerful Education Courses

YES Institute offers groundbreaking workshops on gender, orientation, communication, and leadership. Universities from around the country seek our materials as the most up-to-date and innovative on these topics.

Our courses are open to everyone and offer Continuing Education Units (CEUs) to teachers, counselors, registered nurses, clinical social workers, and mental health professionals.
