Community, Resiliency & Belonging Event Neurodivergent and Pride Folks & Families

Join us at YES Institute for a community gathering for neurodivergent individuals, families, and allies, who are also connected to gender and orientation diversity experiences. We invite you to engage in open dialogue, learning from personal experiences, and exchanging supportive resources.

We invite you to stay after the educational portion of the evening to enjoy interactive board games, card games, and quality connection time with like-minded folks.

What to expect:

- A welcoming, sensory-considerate environment.
- An educational dialogue on community resiliency with allies and families who care in the first half of the evening.
- Games and activities provided after educational dialogue segment.
- Youth can attend if accompanied by a parent/legal guardian.
- Light snacks and refreshments available!

Tues, June 10, 2025
6:00pm–9:00pm
